

Ketton Showtime Events

Friday 7th February One Voice, One Cello and a Mad Belgian

One Voice, One Cello & A Mad Belgian is a unique collaboration between jazz-cellist and singer/songwriter Rupert Gillett and soprano saxophonist, melodeon player and singer/songwriter Jennifer El Gammal. They delve into jazz, rock, folk, pop and more using only a cello, soprano sax and voice, while at the same time singing songs about robots, space invaders, bogey men and other serious issues of the day.

Rupert was a featured artist at the prestigious New Directions Cello Festival in Cologne, Germany. He also regularly performs in a number of ensembles such as Dai & the Ramblers (Ace Records), She'Koyokh, The London Klezmer Quartet and many more. Jennifer's musical projects include the modern jazz trio UÅ¼ivati and the unique folk band Virevoltes, featuring melodeon, celtic harp and percussion.

www.facebook.com/events/345147076300974

Friday 6th March The Shackleton Trio

A highly original and energetic musical force just as likely to move you to tears as to move you to your feet. Frequently referred to as one of the hardest working bands on the scene, The Shackleton Trio is gaining significant UK and International exposure, becoming an in demand name on the folk circuit. 2018 saw plays on Mark Radcliffe's Radio 2 Folk Show, an appearance on Cambridge Folk Festival's main stage alongside a host of UK and European festivals and international tours. The Shackleton Trio are Georgia Shackleton (fiddle, vocals), Aaren Bennett (guitar) and Nic Zuppardi (mandolin).

www.shackletontrio.co.uk

At the Northwick Arms, Ketton PE9 3TA

8 pm with doors open from 7.30 pm

Show £10 â€“ bookings from adam@susted.org.uk 01780 720 521

Show + Evening meal £20 - bookings 01780 720 238

Adam Cade
Ketton Showtime