

Leicestershire
Police
Protecting our communities

Rutland Newsletter

Issue November 2019

Welcome to your Rutland police e-newsletter. Here you will find all of the latest news from a Rutland policing perspective and crime prevention advice to help keep yourself safe.

Meet the Team

Sergeant Darren Richardson

PC Josh Ace

PC Joe Lloyd

News from PS Richardson

On Tuesday 15 October, Sergeant Darren Richardson attended an event at Melton Fire Station to support Syrian families who have recently moved to Melton and Rutland. During the event, Sergeant Richardson had the opportunity to speak to the families as well as watching and taking part in some of the activities organised by the fire service.

Tweet from Uppingham's Twitter Account

Uppingham Police Published 1w ago
@UppinghamPolice

Whilst out on foot patrol this evening, PC Icke was approached by this young lad named Tyler who found a bag with a lot amount of money in. He handed over the bag and PC Icke was able to find the owner (pictured), who was so grateful she gave him a little 🙏 reward. #honestypays <https://t.co/y7VukVDaXd>

18

156

131,316

This great story
Uppingham Police
tweeted received
156 likes and 17
comments which include:

"Well done to that young man"

"What a star"

"Faith in humanity restored"

Youngster Assists Police

PC Joe Lloyd was on an evening patrol in Uppingham when he was flagged down by young Alfie Marston.

Alfie told PC Lloyd he had noticed the lights were on in a local business premises and that its garage doors were open. He was worried that they had been broken into.

Fortunately there wasn't anything suspicious going on but Alfie's community spirit and thoughtfulness earned him an Inspectors Award which PC Lloyd presented to him.

New PCSO to join Rutland Beat

We would like to welcome PCSO Olivia Dutton to the team. She is currently in training at Melton Mowbray Police Station, once her training is complete she will be based in Oakham.

Olivia is a committed Police cadet leader and will be leading the unit in the Remembrance Parade.

She has won awards for being Cadet Leader of the Year and Woman of the Year.

Before she joined Leicestershire Police, Olivia worked in a secondary school supporting children with challenging behaviour.

She looks forward to meeting you when she is out and about.

The next edition will be out soon!